Barbara, I cannot accept this because there is not enough funds in DCN K0E021 to move. On the form, you want to move $16,217.47, but our current balance in this generic account is only $15,580.69 (I think you forgot to consider the recent $10,000.00 that used from this account for Haystack #1). Can you please resubmit an updated form with corrected amounts? If you have any questions, please let me know.

Hi All,

Here's the correct WAF. Sorry for the confusion.

Barbara, you did not attach the corrected WAF with the new site ID #. I will not process the first one you sent, but I will need you to resend the corrected WAF before I can process it.

Please use the attached revised WAF. The SSID was just created and would like costs to be recorded under that ID.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
